

CENTERPOINT AUDITIONS

- There are a few different spots in this upcoming campaign, with various roles. And some roles that have similar specs. So, just pick ONE SCRIPT/ROLE TO AUDITION WITH. They may end up booking you in another role. The audition is really to see how you deliver the material/expression, etc.
- Remember to turn your phone sideways so you are recording horizontally not vertically, if you use your phone to do the audition.
- Be sure we can clearly see and hear you. Medium shot, chest up is fine for audition. You can slate your name in a full length shot.

“FAMILY OUT TO DINNER” SPOT

Mom, Dad, 2 Kids

Family finishing up dinner at a restaurant. Waiter approaches.

WAITER: Can I interest you in dessert tonight?

PARENT 1: I think we are OK.

The Parents’ phones light up with notification from CenterPoint showing their power is out at home. Parent 2 holds phone up to parent 1.

PARENT 2: On second thought, dessert sounds like a great way to finish tonight.

KIDS: YES, ICE CREAM !!!!!!!!!

“TAKING CARE OF EACH OTHER” SPOT

Man (age 25-45), His Parents (ages late 50s and above)

A Man is cooking a dinner...really getting into cooking, tasting and everything along the way. His phone lights up with an alert from CenterPoint about a power outage. He calls his parents.

MAN: Hey Mom, I see your power is out. Are you and Dad OK? Why don’t you both come over for dinner tonight?

The Parents don’t have lines in actual script, but for audition, just Ad-Lib a response back to the son on the phone, something like “Yeah, it went off about five minutes ago when we were watching TV...” or “that sounds like a good idea, your dad has been trying to find a flashlight,” etc.

CENTERPOINT AUDITIONS

“NETFLIX AND HANG” SPOT

About 4 people around 18-25 years old.

A group of friends are together at someone’s house watching a movie. Their phones light up with notification from CenterPoint about a power outage. They look at their phones.

FRIEND 1:       Looks like my power is out at home.

FRIEND 2:       Mine too.

Everyone looks at each other and shrugs.

EVERYONE:      Double feature!

FRIEND 1:       I have the snacks!

FRIEND 2:       I will get the drinks.
